

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that I currently have a business relationship with (e.g., my bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call me as often as they want. Over an eighteen month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents.

The Indiana Attorney General is fighting this battle with every legal resource available.
